Important Instructions

- The allotment will commence from highest rank onwards for each category.
- Allocation of colleges will be strictly on the basis of merit and availability of seats in the colleges at that point of time.
- Candidates must bring their admit card issued for B.El.Ed. Entrance Examination , 2017
- Only those OBC candidates whose caste is included in the centralized OBC list of Government of India will be considered for seats reserved for OBC category. The candidates must belong to the Non-creamy layer.

- In case of a tie of the merit rank, rules followed by University of Delhi for the same will be applicable for admission.
- The candidate must report in person to Faculty of Education/Central Institute of Education (CIE) at the reporting time allotted to them. If a candidate fails to present herself on the specified round (date and time assigned in the list) of Spot allotment of colleges, she forfeits her candidature and will not be considered. The allotment of seats to the candidates will be made only when they personally attend the spot allotment session at the designated date and time.
- The choice of colleges exercised at the time of Spot allotment shall be final.
- Migration from one college to another is not in the purview of the Admission Committee and no such request will be entertained.
- Number of candidates called for Spot Allotment of colleges is higher than the actual number of seats available in all categories. Allotment of colleges will close as soon as the required numbers of seats are filled up in a particular category. However a waiting list will be prepared from the candidates present for the spot allotment of colleges.
- If the seats remain vacant after expiry of payment deadlines in colleges, the same will be offered to the candidates in the waiting list. Keep checking website for a list of candidates offered seats further (if required).
- If the candidate fails to pay the fee within the specified time period, the offer will be withdrawn and the seat will be allotted to the next candidate in the waiting list.

Admission granted at the time of Spot Allotment will be PROVISIONAL

Admission to a college will be considered complete subject to the following:

- (i) Document Verification in allotted colleges.
- (ii) Payment of fee within the prescribed time-limit.
